

Annual Meeting Proxy

I understand that my voting instructions are being solicited on behalf of the Richmond Volleyball Club Board of Directors for the Annual Meeting of the members on March 16, 2010. Accordingly, I am instructing the Secretary to cast my vote as follows:

Election of Directors

(Votes will be cast for those marked. Select up to 3 or ask the Board to vote your proxy.)

- George Grant
- John Howarth
- Jerry Morris
- Frank Petroski
- Robert Small
- Martin Thiel

-or-

- I wish to have the current Board of Directors vote my proxy for the three candidates of their choice.

This proxy will be voted as directed.

Name (print) _____

Signature _____

Date _____

Note that this proxy is invalid if:

- name, date, or signature is not included
- a member votes more than once
- the voter is not a member in good standing
- more than three candidates are selected

Candidates

George Grant

- Senior IT Project Manager for Wachovia Securities. Program and project manager responsible for implementing strategic initiatives.
- B.A. Economics, University of Akron, 1994
- 2009-present, RVC Competition Committee

John Howarth

- Project Manager, Business Intelligence, Enterprise Resource Planning for Honeywell Intl.
- B.S. Biology, University of Richmond, 1983
- 1985-present RVC member
- 2010 Grand Opening Committee member

Jerry Morris

- Chief Referee, RVC
- Competition Committee member
- Current RVC Board member
- Adult Coordinator, Old Dominion Region, USAV

Frank Petroski

- Principal Web Designer, General Dynamics Information Technology. Creates internet-based applications such as defense communications systems for the US Dept. of Defense.
- B.S. Computer Science, Philadelphia University, 1999
- Current RVC Board Member; RVC member 2001-present

Robert Small

- Owner, CEO, and Association Manager of Association Community Services West. Responsible for establishing working relationships with community boards of directors.
- B.S. Communications, Radford University, 1995
- Early 90's-present, RVC member

Martin Thiel

- Business Analyst, Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond. Assists in the management and support of multiple US Treasury funds and grants applications.
- B.S. Accounting, University of Oregon, 1991
- 1995-present, RVC member

